REPEATER REPORT:

In town receiver is working really well.

New repeater is waiting to move to the site.

The Norman Digipeter may have had a lightning strike that may have messed up the power supply.

VE TEAM:

4 test takers

3 new technicians

NET REPORTS: All nets are up and running and active.

Equipment:

The club has received a donation of ham equipment. The plan is that a raffle will be done at no cost to give away the equipment. Rules are:

- 1) Must be a licenced ham
- 2) One ticket per family
- 3) Must be a dues paying member of the club.

Bill (KD5DOB) has acquired several sections of Rohn 45G tower that is being giving away as a first come first serve basis.

Old Buisness:

The Fall picnic is being discussed. Recommended date is Oct. 3rd, alternative date is Oct. 24th at Reeves Park. Time being 11-3 or 11-4 A resolution was made to reimburse for the pavilion and up to $250 for food. It was seconded and passed.

Bill (KD5DOB) showed a sample QSL card that was approved by the club.

New Buisness:

Route 66 on the air started today with 16 stations and one rover. W6JBT.org is the website.

With that, the meeting was closed at 10:33 AM.
